TODAY'S NEWS IN THE CONTESTS

Voting Today Again Very Heavy in all the Contests.

There Are Some Changes in the Standing of the Contestants Today.

SOME NOTES OF THE CONTESTS.

Mr. John Dunaway has taken second place in the most popular man in Paducah contest and is very close to Mr. Gilbert, the leader.

Attention is called to the fact that to have your ballots which you cut from The Sun counted each must be detached.

Some of our readers have been sending in the slip containing all four ballots, and to cut them apart demands more time than we can give it. Therefore, remember and send in each ballot detached.

Remember you are entitled to a special coupon in each contest when paying your subscription in advance. These coupons do not have to be voted at once but are good at any time within ten days. You can, therefore, take a coupon for a contest in which you are not interested and trade it for a similar one in the one in which you are interested.

The prizes to be given away are as follows:

To the most popular ladies in Pa-cah:

A piano,
A Gold Watch,
An Umbrella.
To the most popular men in Paducah: $100 in Gold,
A Gold Watch,
An Umbrella.
To the most popular lady residing on the rural routes in this county:
A Gold Watch.
To the most popular man residing on the rural routes in this county:
A Buggy.
Everyone is entitled to a vote in each of these contests. All you have to do is to fill out the ballots to be found in each issue of The Sun and send them in. You will note that the ballots have a time limit,—must be voted within a week of the date thereon.

Special coupons of votes will be issued for payments on subscriptions, and we would call everyone's attention to the fact that subscriptions paid now are worth double what they will be worth in March. For instance: 40c will pay for The Sun one month and entitle you to 80 votes, if paid now. The same subscription paid in March will entitle you to only 40 votes. A year's subscription, $4.50, will entitle you to 1100 votes, if paid now; in March, if you wait it will be worth only 500 votes. Thus you see the wisdom of sending in your subscriptions early.

The piano is "The Valley Gem," sold by W. T. Miller, and is one of the best pianos he sells. It is valued at $250.

The watch for the first contest is on exhibition at Nagel & Meyer's, for the second at J. L. Wolff's, for the third contest, at Warren & Warren's.

The buggy for the most popular man in the county, is one Powell & Rogers sell for $65, and can be seen at their place of business.

THE MARY N. SANK NEAR THE DOCKS

St. Bernard's Harbor Boat Almost Submerged.

Went Down About 4:30 A. M.—No Lives Lost Except That of the Steamer's Dog.

THE CRAFT CAN BE RAISED.

The towboat Mary N., of the fleet of the St. Bernard Mining Co., successor to the St. Bernard Coal Co., sank in a bout 12 feet of water at the St. Bernard docks at the foot of Kentucky avenue this morning about 4:30 o'clock, but can be raised. The cause of the sinking cannot be determined until she is raised and on the ways for repairs, but there are several theories advanced.

The boat worked about the harbor all day yesterday and at 6 o'clock was run into the docks and tied up for the night, as usual. The night watchman, Ewell Gaines, colored, always looked after the fire, steam being kept up all night to use in pumping out the docks and barges, and this morning at three o'clock telephoned to Manager Joe Bishop that one of the siphons would not work.

The engineer was sent down to investigate, but arrived too late. The boat had sunk. She had careened to the outside of the docks and only her smoke stacks and pilot house were visible to the eye.

The Mary N. was built first in 1878 by Captain R. G. Rouse, then manager of the St. Bernard Co. In 1891 the boat was rebuilt and her original name, the Little Mary, changed to Mary N. She was originally about 175x16 feet, but when rebuilt was lengthened some and is now about 182 feet long with the same beam. Last December new boilers were put on the boat and she is valued at about $3,000. She is laying in such a position as to render it hard to raise her, especially since the rivers are rising so rapidly, but Captain R. Broadfoot was at work early this morning lashing her to the docks and getting in readiness to pump her out.

One theory as to the cause of sinking is that a pipe burst and the water from it filled the hull. Another is that a seam which had frozen, thawed out and let in the water. Another is that ice jerked the oakum out of a seam and let in the water. From present indications it will require two or three days to raise her. It is thought she was not badly damaged.

No one was aboard the boat when she went under except the little watch dog, Black Mary, which had been on the boat for years. This little dog always had a chair by the fire in the cabin and whenever anyone came on the boat she was up in a minute giving the alarm. The dog was caught, evidently when she went under, and drowned, as no trace of her can be found.

FOREMAN HURT.

Jerry Arnold Painfully Scalded at Fulton Yesterday.

Mr. Jerry D. Arnold, of Fulton, is in the city today having his right knee dressed.

Mr. Arnold was uncoupling an air hose at Fulton when the steam caught his leg and went through his clothing, scalding his knee. A large blister was burned on the knee and he will be disabled for several days. Mr. Arnold formerly worked in the local yards on an engine as foreman.

NEW STEWARD.

Chicago Man Arrives Today to Take Place at Palmer.

Mr. E. D. Hill, of Chicago, will arrive today to accept the stewardship at the Palmer House. He succeeds Mr. George Stromenger, who has been here several months, and now goes to Oakdale, Tenn., to accept a position. Mr. Hill is not a stranger in Paducah, having held the position at the Palmer some time ago, but resigned. His friends will be glad to learn of his return.

Theatrical Notes

An entertainment replete with originality and headed by comedians who are well and favorably known as creators and originators is what local farce comedy lovers are promised next Tuesday evening, when Wesley and Mack, the popular Irish farceurs and the dainty comedienne Nazie Trumbull will appear at the Kentucky theater with their company in their recent success, "The Irish Pawnbrokers," which is promised funnier than anything they have as yet presented. That is a bold assertion, but their success the present season justifies the claim. "The Irish Pawnbrokers," while a farce comedy, cannot be classed with the average entertainment that is traveling under that guise, as it has a well defined plot, and there is rhyme and reason for all the funny mishaps and incidents, which, being understood by the audience, makes the fun more enjoyable. Of course, the three acts are lightened and brightened by an abundance of music and concerted and individual specialties, but they are introduced with a view of fitting the surroundings, and not dragged in pell-mell just to fill up time as is very often the case. There is also a contingent of scenic and mechanical effects which add much to the general completeness of the performance. The company is larger and stronger than ever and numbers among its roster many artists of known repute. Seats on sale Monday.

One of the merriest combinations of pretty music, pretty costumes, pretty women, beautiful scenery and other essentials of comic opera at its best is promised in the presentation of "The Princess Chic," at The Kentucky for a matinee and night performance tomorrow.

The Kirke La Shelle Opera company engaged for "The Princess Chic" organization includes the talented and beautiful Sophie Brandt, late prima donna of the Prince of Pilsen company of London, England. Miss Brandt is appearing in the title role of the piece, and the critics of the east and south, where the company so far has been playing this season, have bestowed upon her remarkably high praise.

The popular basso comedian, Geo. Callahan, who made a tremendous hit in the original production of "The Princess Chic" in New York is back in the cast of "The Princess Chic," playing the part he made, the biggest hit of his life in, namely, that of "Brevet," the soldier of fortune. Mr. Callahan's magnificent bass voice, it is said, is not equalled by any other in lyric opera in this country. He has also great ability as a comedian. Seats are now on sale.

FOR SHOP GIRLS.

Health Club Has Been Offered Land in the Ozarks.

Chicago, Feb. 10.—Before the National Promotion of Health club Mrs. E. Cornelia Claffin has announced that the club has been offered 100 acres of land in the Ozark Mountains as a place of recreation for sick shop girls, on the condition that the organization increase its membership to 1,000. She made a plea for this increased membership.

"There are many girls who work in the stores from one year to the other," she said, "who are tired out and need a complete rest. Our plan is to have a place where they can spend a few months of the summer, living in tents and recover the health they have lost in the stores."

Against Horse Racing.

Jefferson City, Mo., Feb. 10.—The house committee on jurisprudence has reported a measure designed to take the place of the "breeder" law. The law, as it stands, licenses pool selling on horse races "in certain inclosures." The proposed substitute makes bookmaking and pool selling at race tracks or elsewhere a misdemeanor punishable by a maximum fine of $1,000, or by imprisonment, or both.

CIVIC PRIDE.

Civic pride is something that every community needs. The Lexington Herald, always in the lead for a clean, honest, progressive municipal administration, has the following to say along the lines of a clean city:

"If the ordinance requiring every occupant of a city lot to clean off the snow in front of his property was enforced in Lexington there would this morning be between fifty and a hundred men going from house to house in every section of the city with spade and shovel to clean the snow and sleet off the walks. They would clean the sidewalks of each property owner for from ten cents to fifty cents; would each earn from one to three dollars; no one property owner would have to pay over ten to fifty cents, and every sidewalk in the city would be clean and fit to walk on by night. As it is, where there are men who are willing to do it themselves, or where there are men servants, the sidewalks will be cleaned, and where there are not they will stay covered with snow and ice till it melts.

"Would it not be better to have them all cleaned; to have the men who are out of work know they can get work by cleaning them and earn a couple of dollars by doing so than to have them sloppy and sleety and dangerous for days to come?

"The ordinance is there, the city officials whose duty it is to enforce it are here, the citizens who disobey it are here—would it not be better for the whole city for the police to arrest and Judge Riley fine those citizens who do not obey that ordinance?

"Good citizenship, good neighborliness ought to make every man keep his sidewalk clean. If they have no effect a fine imposed and collected will very soon teach him that it is cheaper to have the snow cleaned off for a quarter of a dollar than it is to pay three dollars and costs for not having it done.

"Let's try the experiment of having the laws enforced for a change."

Every state should have a law similar to that proposed in Missouri, seeking to dispense with that worthy individual, the "chyster" lawyer.
Like the poor he is with us always, but Missouri, like other states, has measured him and decided that he can better be dispensed with than otherwise. A dispatch from Jefferson City thus explains the bill: "Mr. Andus' house bill, directed at 'chysters' in the legal profession, passed by a vote of 120 to 0. The bill provides that any person who shall directly or indirectly practice the stirring up of suits between persons or between persons and corporations, or who shall practice soliciting claims against any person or corporation for the purpose of inducing the instituting of suits on said claims, shall be deemed to have committed common barratry. Any person convicted of common barratry shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor and be punished by a fine of not more than $300 and not less than $25 or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding three months and not less than ten days, or both such fine and imprisonment.

And if the person so convicted be at the time a licensed attorney at law in the courts of this state such conviction shall operate to disbar him as said attorney. The act shall not be so construed as to abridge in any way the right of a duly licensed attorney at law to hold himself out for professional employment, or to publish or use professional cards in connection therewith, or to tender his professional services without compensation."

Young statesmen with more ambition to win notoriety, than discretion, should profit by the experience of Comerford, of Illinois. He found himself after only thirty days' service in the legislature, subject to the humiliation of being expelled, something that hadn't been done before in many years in the Illinois legislature. The young man may be thoroughly conscientious and honest, but he lacks the judgment and insight which are necessary before young statesmen from the backwoods should venture to stand alone, as it were.
There are many people, especially the unsophisticated, who imagine that everything in politics is thoroughly dishonest and reprehensible. If they better understood human nature and the true inwardness of things, they might find that all in politics is not corrupt, and make fewer mistakes.
These young men often break into a legislature, and everything being new to them, they fail to grasp the significance of many things, and impetuously rush forward to charge something they cannot prove when called on to do so. Every public servant should expose corruption whenever he finds it, but he should be sure it exists before making such sweeping charges as the callow youth from Illinois made.

Congressman Ollie James, from Kentucky, made a speech against the railroad rate bill, but it is reported he voted in favor of it. It's only excuse for speaking against it was that the penalty prescribed he did not regard as severe enough.

For Rabbi Enelow's Visit to Paducah.

Sunday the trustees of the Jewish church will meet and decide on some one to invite to preach at the church on trial, but as far as can be learned no particular rabbi is in view.

A prominent church member stated this morning that Rabbi Enelow formerly rabbi at the local church, would come some time this month to preach two sermons. This will be good news to his congregation and also to others who appreciate intellectual treats, for Rabbi Enelow is one of the most polished scholars in the state.

DR. BASS NAMED AS CITY PHYSICIAN

Appointed Temporarily by Mayor D. A. Yeiser.

A Number of Applicants Anticipated —Many Suggest Medical Society's Proposition.

THE GENERAL COUNCIL ELECTS

Dr. W. Johnston Bass has been appointed by Mayor D. A. Yeiser city physician temporarily, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation last night of City Physician Robert Rivers. The general council will have to be called together to elect a successor to Dr. Rivers.

It is not known how many applicants there will be for the position.
Dr. Olivia Nelson, who received nearly half of the votes when the annual election was held in December, stated today that she had not decided whether to enter the race again or not.

Dr. Bass is one of the best known and most popular young doctors in Paducah. He is capable in every way, and says he is willing to take the position and look after the work as it should be looked after. It is reported he will probably be elected to fill the vacancy permanently.

It is suggested by many, however, that the general council leave the vacancy unfilled until it is decided what to do in regard to managing the new city hospital. The doctors of Paducah a few weeks ago proposed to have members of the medical society look after the city physician's duties free of charge to the city, which would have saved the expense of the city physician.

The administration, however, which was anxious to have as many people as possible drawing salaries from the city, proceeded to ignore the recommendation and elect a city physician, and now that there is another vacancy, it is being suggested by many people that the general council take up the proposition made by the medical society, and not only have the new hospital managed capably, but have the duties of city physician looked after by two or three doctors instead of piling it all on one.

Dr. J. G. Brooks, one of the committeemen appointed by the medical society to assist in getting up recommendations for the government and operation of the new city hospital called on Mayor Yeiser this morning with a full report of the Owensboro hospital relative to the management and the profit made annually over the expenses.

The book is complete and sworn to, and the outline of the committee for the management of the Paducah hospital is on the same lines as that of Owensboro and Mayor Yeiser instructed Dr. Brooks to confer with the committee to which the doctors' recommendations were referred and submit the report of the Owensboro hospital.

The doctors are taking a lively interest in the new hospital and want to see it in service as soon as possible.

Dr. P. H. Stewart, who offered to fully equip one private ward in the new hospital, was present at the board of aldermen meeting last night when Mayor D. A. Yeiser presented the offer in regular written form.

"I want to say a word in explanation of Dr. Stewart's offer," Mayor Yeiser stated, "He came to me and explained that he had been living in Paducah a long time and could think of nothing better to do than to offer the city what I have just read, and hopes you will help him and his conscience by accepting."

The board accepted the offer unanimously and extended thanks.

ty court has offered $200 reward for the arrest and conviction of Arthur Miller, who killed Richard Laplant, $300 for his arrest and conviction.

The father and brothers of Laplant have offered $500 for the arrest and delivery to the sheriff. Total, $1,000.

Smallpox in Pennsylvania.

Altoona, Pa., Feb. 10.—A small-pox epidemic prevails at Portage, a town of eight hundred, in the mountains near here. There are now 50 cases and the disease is spreading.
The town will be quarantined and the militia called out to guard it.

WRITTEN AT RANDOM.

The latent germ of scientific knowledge nestled in the brain of great scientists is often manifested in early youth, and one little fellow who by every indication will some day make his name live in scientific history, certainly showed that he had something in his cranium besides the minor cares of the average small boy.

A party of boys were coasting in a hollow near the Thompson stockyards, and there was a deep gully directly across the path. Whenever the little fellows would come down the hill they would invariably go into the ditch, that is those not skillful enough to turn their sleds aside but the boy in question soon remedied this matter.

He procured several shovels and with the aid of his companions shoveled a high bank of snow on the edge of the ditch and gradually sloped it off, making a gradual rise from the bottom of the embankment to the gutter. He finished this side and went to the other where he lowered the snow a little. He next took his sled and ascending the hill started off. He struck the bottom of the embankment at a rapid speed, mounted the slope and shot clean over the gully, landing on the other side. He did not stop here but went on for a great distance from the momentum of his body and sled. It required no skill after this and pretty soon the youngsters were all enjoying the long coast, thanks to the inventive genius of their friend.

Councilmen J. P. McCarty used to be a fireman in Louisville and tells many amusing experiences he had while serving the city in that capacity.

"I am a river man by profession," he explained, "but in my younger days got a hankering after a fireman job. I suppose every youngster at some time in his life gets a feeling of the heroism supposed to be attached to such positions, and when I got on was filled with the deeds of valor I saw myself doing. In fact, I was so sure of distinguishing myself that I already saw my picture in the papers where I carried girls and babies out of the very face of death.

Six months cured me, for my eyes could not stand it, and I had to quit.
I was on a steamer, a pipeman, and the smoke and dust nearly put my eyes out. When I got my appointment and was made a 'fire laddie,' the first stunt they made me do, and I was green enough to do it, too, mind you, was to make a few trial races for the pole and slide down to the ground floor. The boys put up the joke pretty solid and I rarely ever got down in time. Sometime I felt some other fireman, just a little faster, come down on my head, and after a few hazings of this nature, I was given my second degree.

"The boys placed a long ladder up against the station house and made me climb up to the top, and, sitting down on the sides, slide down. Well, I hit in a heap the first two or three times, but fortunately broke no bones, and it was nearly a week of constant practice on ladder sliding before I caught on to the fact that they were only making sport of me.

"After I left Louisville I came to Paducah and have been here since.
I love the fire business, attend all fires possible, and spend some of my time at the local stations. I was recently presented with an excellent pipe by the stationmen at the No. 2 station. I often watch them play just such pranks as were played on me, and I enjoy them, too. Of course, it is only fun, and all danger possible eliminated."

Some one had made the remark that it was too cold for hoboes to ride the freight rods and the old conductor was at once up in arms to deny the allegation.

"I haven't but one leg and a piece of arm," he vehemently declared, "but at one time was a mighty good man. I have run trains in all sorts of weather and have never seen the temperature too low for the average tramp, who has been in the business any length of time, to steal a ride.

"When I was running on an Ohio road in the freight service I often caught hoboes on my train. Sometimes I would see an honest face and let him pass, but when I saw a downright mean customer, and I could tell them, too, off he went. I never in my experience let but one real thief, and I knew him to be one, ride on my train, but this was because he showed me a thing or two in the inventive line.

"I was on a siding waiting for a passenger train when I noticed smoke coming from under one of my cars. I ran back and discovered some bran sacks afire. A lantern was brought into service and the sight that met my eyes was one to astonish any one. There lay a hobo asleep with part of his bedding afire.
He had arranged several flexible boards across the rods and securely tied them with a rope. He had stolen several of those patent feet warmers you see in hacks, and they had been on the market only a short time. He had placed one near his head, another at his feet, and the other three by his sides. One had gotten too warm and set the bran sacks he spread across the boards afire. We had been standing on the siding fully fifteen minutes in zero weather, yet he was so comfortable as to be able to sleep. That knocked me sky high and I didn't disturb him only long enough to make him readjust the sucking to protect my train from fire.

"When a man is ingenious enough to steal feet warmers and rig up such a bed as he did, he is welcome to ride on my train."

Officer Emil Gourieux, whose beat extends to the city limits on West Broadway, experienced many difficulties in making his rounds since the streets and pavements got so slick and informed his partner, Officer Tom Potter, that he intended coming out on skates.

The novelty of the suggestion appealed to Officer Potter, who declares that Officer Gourieux did come out on skates and that he used them with pleasure when they reached West Broadway. Officer Gourieux, however, claims the matter a joke, but many residents in that locality declare they saw a blue streak shoot in and out, but didn't know it was an officer.

His brother officers are joking him considerably, but he takes it all good naturedly and is glad that he is not considered too old and stiff to show his ability on skates.

One isn't necessarily wealthy because he has more money than brains.

A FELLOW FEELING.

Why She Felt Lenient Towards the Drunkard.

A great deal depends on the point of view. A good temperance woman was led, in a very peculiar way, to revise her somewhat harsh judgment of the poor devil who cannot resist his cups and she is now the more charitable. She writes:

"For many years I was a great sufferer from asthma. Finally my health got so poor that I found I could not lie down, but walked the floor whilst others slept. I got so nervous I could not rest anywhere.

"Specialists told me I must give up the use of coffee—the main thing that I always thought gave me some relief. I consulted our family physician, and he, being a coffee fiend himself told me to pay no attention to their advice. Coffee had such a charm for me that in passing a restaurant and getting a whiff of the fragrance I could not resist a cup. I felt very lenient towards the drunkard who could not pass the saloon.
Friends often urged me to try Postum, but I turned a deaf ear, saying 'That may do for people to whom coffee is harmful, but not for me—coffee and I will never part.'

"At last, however, I bought a package of Postum, although I was sure I could not drink it. I prepared it as directed, and served it for breakfast.
Well, bitter as I was against it, I must say that never before had I tasted a more delicious cup of coffee! From that day to this (more than 2 years) I have never had a desire for the old coffee. My health soon returned; the asthma disappeared, I began to sleep well and in a short time I gained 20 pounds in weight.

"One day I handed my physician the tablets he had prescribed for me, telling him I had no use for them.
He stayed for dinner. When I passed him his coffee cup he remarked, 'I am glad to see you were sensible enough not to let yourself be persuaded that coffee was harmful. This is the best cup of coffee I ever drank.' he continued: 'the trouble is so few people know how to make good coffee.' When he got his second cup I told him he was drinking Postum.
He was incredulous, but I convinced him, and now he uses nothing but Postum in his home and has greatly improved in health." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

BAD MAN KILLED

C. W. FREEMAN SHOT AT DYERS-BURG, TENN.

Frank Rogers Exonerated for the Killing and No Warrant Was Issued.

Dyersburg, Tenn., Feb. 10.—Chas.
W. Freeman was shot and instantly killed by Frank Rogers at the store of P. A. Rogers at Gonicord, Dyer county, last night.

The report is that Freeman was drunk and was very disorderly and disposed to fight. Frank Rogers went to the store of his brother and Freeman attacked him. It is said that the attack was without cause or provocation, and that Freeman shot at Rogers twice in the store, but missed him each time. He then pursued him behind the counter and dropping his pistol picked up a large ax handle and had it raised and was in the act of striking Rogers over the head when Rogers picked up a pistol which he found behind the counter and fired at Freeman at close range.

The ball struck Freeman in the eye, passing entirely through his head, killing him instantly. Coroner David Shaw, with his jury, held an inquest today and after examining witnesses to the tragedy, reported that Rogers' shot in self defense. No warrant was sworn out. Rogers is known to be a man of quiet and peaceful disposition and fired only in self-defense.

Freeman was a notorious character, drunken, boisterous and pugnacious. Two years ago he killed D. M.
Little in this county, but was cleared for that offense. Freeman leaves a wife and one child.

SAM FIELDS

Corroborates Mose Feltner in His Statement About Being Paid to Leave.

Winchester, Ky., Feb. 10.—The deposition of Sam Fields, one of the witnesses who, it is alleged, were enticed away from here during the Marcum-Hargis trial, was taken here yesterday. He corroborated Mose Feltner in that B. F. French paid them money to leave Winchester and that all the expenses were paid by Feltner.

Sheriff McCord received from the circuit clerk of Breathitt county a warrant of arrest for Mose Feltner.
It was issued at the request of S. H.
Hurst, who is his bondsman for $5,- 000 for his appearance at Jackson, to be tried for the killing of Jesse Fields and Hurst desired to be relieved from this bond.

Circuit Judge Benton has stated that so long as the prisoners are in the custody of the Clark county officers they shall not be taken to Jackson. Feltner will therefore not attempt to give bond.

EXPLOSION WRECKS PLANT.

All Lights Within Radius of Two Miles Are Extinguished.

Birmingham, Ala., Feb. 10.—A terrific explosion at the dynamite plant of the Du Pont Powder Co., at Boyle's Gap, five miles north of this city, last night wrecked the plant and broke windows and extinguished all lights within a radius of two miles, but so far as learned no one was killed. The shock was distinctly felt from one end of Jones' Valley to the other, a distance of 25 miles.
Every avenue for obtaining the details is cut off tonight, and nothing definite can be learned until tomorrow.

STREETS SELECTED BY ALDERMANIC BOARD

The aldermanic board met in regular session last night with all members present.

The applications of Miss Lena Henneberger for superintendent of the new city hospital and of Miss Alice Arnold for matron were received and filed.

The application of Ella G. Davis, of Owensboro, for matron of the new city hospital was filed.

The communication from the Retail Merchants' association asking the city to take such steps possible to raise the license tax of loan companies to such figures as to "shut" them out, was received and filed and the ordinance committee and city solicitor ordered to bring in ordinance governing the matter.

The solicitor was ordered to collect the taxes due on the Seacoast Mineral Co.

The matter of the steam heating company connecting its drain pipes with city sewers was referred to the joint sewer committee.

The city tax supervisors were granted an extension of time.

The resignation of City Physician Robert Rivers was presented as follows:

Paducah, Ky., Feb. 9, 1905.
To the Honorable Mayor and Members of the Board of Aldermen and Council:

As I have discharged the duty of city physician to the best of my ability and as there has been some complaint about same by some parties on the hospital board, I wish to offer my resignation. To let you know what the duties of the city physician are I will state same in my resignation. The outside calls average 12 for each day of the last year; the city physician is compelled to go to the city hospital once a day, and oftener if called; he must report to the city hall every forenoon and evening, and attend to the sick in the city prison; he is compelled to go to the pesthouse when called and must investigate all reported smallpox and other contagious diseases; he is compelled to attend all paupers that call at his office and give them medicine.
As I have done my duty to the best of my ability for the last three years, and this is the first complaint, I offer my resignation, as I could not do better than I have.

Very respectfully,
ROBERT RIVERS, M. D.

The resignation was accepted and the mayor was authorized to select some one to officiate as city physician until he could call the two municipal boards together in joint session to elect a successor to Dr. Rivers.

The finance committee's report for salaries, bills, etc., amounting to a total of $17,096.07, was received and filed.

The bill of Attorney J. C. Flournoy, $162.50, for collecting poll tax from the telegraph companies was allowed, minus the amount he owed the city for taxes.

Report showing a balance of $180-268.53 in the treasury, was received and filed.

The matter of refunding the Sam Hop Sing Laundry Co. nine months' license, was referred.

City Solicitor Puryear was allowed $11.25, half his office rent, for January.

Aldermen Kraus, Farley and Starks spoke against granting the request because it set a precedent.
The matter was referred to the public improvement committee but City Solicitor Puryear was allowed half his office rent for January.

The ordinance creating the office of city electrical inspector was given passage.

The recommendations of the joint street committee and board public works on the streets to be improved this year were read.

Alderman Bell wanted Seventh street paved from Jefferson to the I. C. freight depot, and wanted to also extend South Fifth to the N. C. and St. L. depot.

Alderman Kraus wanted to elimiinstead pave First street from Jefferson street to Washington, where there is a great deal of traffic. He also did not see the use of extending the improvements out Broad street because it was "too far out."

Alderman Farley stated that the bonds were voted for street improvements, and for the streets needed the most, and that he was sure Third street, from Broadway to the proposed terminal of the improvements, was as frequently used as any street.

The recommendations were voted on separately. That of paving Third street from Kentucky avenue to Fourth and Broad was adopted; Kentucky avenue from First to Ninth was adopted; Jefferson from 2d to 9th, was adopted; 5 from Kentucky avenue to Norton street was accompanied by a remonstrance from property owners. This was lost by a tie vote. Fifth from Jefferson to Clay street was adopted; Sixth from Jefferson to Kentucky avenue was adopted; Seventh from Jefferson to Kentucky avenue was adopted; 9th from Jefferson to Kentucky avenue was adopted; South Second from the Market house to Washington street was adopted.

The motion to have an ordinance brought in providing for the ten-year plan of paying for the improvements, was unanimously adopted and the ordinance ordered drawn up and presented at the next meeting.

The applications of E. Hardison & Co., Scott Overton, A. Bauer, Barney Padgett and Thompson & Wilson Co., the latter both wholesale and quart liquor license, were granted.

A request from Sexton Wm. Porteous, of Oak Grove, for two months or more leave of absence on account of ill health, was read and granted and the appointment of John Porteous as assistant was made.

Alderman Bell suggested that the board take some action towards having Livingston's Point improved in such a way as to protect the banks, which are caving in. He wanted the board to ask for a government inspector sent here to look into the matter and see if the government would not make the improvements.

Mr. S. A. Fowler, secretary of the board of public works, was instructed to take the matter up with Congressman Ollie James.

The city clerk was ordered to see that the union label be placed on all stationary for the city.

The communication from the Central Labor Union offering to aid in selecting a competent man to fill the office of city electrical inspector was filed.

The alleged double assessment of Wm. St. John was referred.

Mayor Yeiser was ordered not to rent the pest house property again, but to turn it over to the fire and police commissioners to use as a pasture for all city horses.

The matter of furnishing a new buggy for Chief Jas. Wood and also one new hook and ladder truck was referred to the joint fire committee.

The offer of Dr. P. H. Stewart to equip one private ward in the new city hospital was accepted and the thanks of the board extended.

Leave of absence was granted L.
P. Rasor, sewer inspector, for thirty days and Mr. Ed Hannan appointed to fill the place in his absence.

A communication from the Mc-Cracken County Medical Society suggesting the methods of government and management of the new city hospital, was referred.

The water company was ordered to extend mains on South Tenth between Clark and Jackson street.

The mayor was ordered to request the I. C. to burn lights all night at the I. C. depot.

The contract made by the board of public works to equip the market house with uniform meat racks, was ratified.

On motion the board adjourned.

Also a Few Facts on the Same Sub- ject.

We hear much nowadays about health foods and hygienic living, about vegetarianism and many other fads along the same line.

Restaurants may be found in the large cities where no meat, pastry or coffee is served and the food crank is in his glory, and arguments and theories galore advanced to prove that meat was never intended for human stomachs, and almost make us believe that our sturdy ancestors who lived four score years in robust health on roast beef, pork and mutton must have been grossly ignorant of the laws of health.

Our forefathers had other things to do than formulate theories about the food they ate. A warm welcome was extended to any kind from bacon to acorns.

A healthy appetite and common sense are excellent guides to follow in matters of diet, and a mixed diet of grains, fruits and meats is undoubtedly the best.

As compared with grains and vegetables, meat furnishes the most nutriment in a highly concentrated form and is digested and assimilated more quickly than vegetables and grains.

Dr. Julius Remmon on this subject says: Nervous persons, people run down in health and of low vitality should eat meat and plenty of it. If the digestion is too feeble at first it may be easily corrected by the regular use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal. Two of these excellent tablets taken after dinner will digest several thousand grains of meat, eggs or other animal food in three hours, and no matter how weak the stomach may be, no trouble will be experienced if a regular practice is made of using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, because they supply the pepsin and diastase necessary to perfect digestion, and every form of indigestion will be overcome by their use.

That the large class of people who come under the head of nervous dys-pepsias should eat plenty of meat and insure its proper digestion, by the daily use of a safe, harmless digestive medicine like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets composed of the natural digestive principles, pepsin, diastase, fruit acids, and salts, which actually perform the work of digestion. Cheap cathartic medicines, masquerading under the name of dyspepsia cures are useless for indigestion as they have absolutely no effect upon the actual digestion of food.

Dyspepsia in all its many forms is simply a failure of the stomach to digest food, and the sensible way to solve the riddle and cure the dyspepsia is to make daily use at meal time of a preparation like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which is endorsed by the medical profession and known to contain active digestive principles.

All druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at 50 cents for full treatment.

MRS. CHADWICK'S CREDITORS.

Receiver Loeser Files List of Them in United States Court.

Cleveland, O., Feb. 9.—Receiver Loeser has filed a list of the creditors of Mrs. Chadwick, together with the amount due each, so far as known, in the United States bankruptcy courts. While it is understood unofficially that Mrs. Chad-wick's debts will aggregate close to $2,000,000, the claims thus far presented to the receiver foot up a total of only $63,310. The list, as filed today, shows that the sums due the big creditors are not known. Among the latter are the following:

Iri Reynolds, Cleveland, contracted in 1903-4, money loaned, amount unknown.

Herbert Newton, Brookline, Mass., contracted at Brookline in 1903-4, money loaned, amount unknown.

C. T. Beckwith, Oberlin, O., contracted at Oberlin, 1903-4, money loaned, amount unknown.

Citizens' National Bank, Oberlin, Ohio, contracted at Oberlin, O., in 1903-4, money loaned, amount unknown.

According to common report the claim of J. W. Friend, of Pittsburg, amounts to $800,000, which he loaned to Mrs. Chadwick. No official statement, however, concerning this claim is available. He is represented in the matter by a prominent local legal firm.

Among some of the other debts owed by Mrs. Chadwick included in Receiver Loeser's list are the following:

Leon Rossells, Brussels, Belgium, for merchandise, $11,580.

Adrian DeLeveau, Paris, France, accepted draft for merchandise, $5-563.

Kirkpatrick & Co., New York, for jewelry, $25,000.

Scores of other creditor's names are given who hold claims running from a few dollars up to $1,000.

Mrs. Chadwick and her attorneys refused to furnish any information concerning her creditors and in the absence of such assistance, Receiver Loeser filed the list for her so far as obtained. The names of other creditors and the amounts due them will be added as fast as they become available.

Harold Remington, referee in bankruptcy, today set February 17 as the date for the meeting of Mrs.
Chadwick's creditors, at which a trustee will be elected to take charge of her property. The meeting will be held in Mr. Remington's office.

Slated For Promotion with the

The appointment of a successor to Mr. S. R. Kennedy, superintendent of the Louisville-St. Louis division great deal of speculation in Louisville.

Many men are mentioned for the place, one being Trainmaster J. F.

the I. C. at Paducah, in the capacity of trainmaster. Mr. Sheridan is now trainmaster of the Louisville-

A GOOD THING.

"Princess Chic" Is Highly Praised in Little Rock.

The Arkansas Gazette, Little Rock, Ark., Feb. 8, says: Considering the slippery pavements, the sleet, the weather generally and the further fact that it was generally known that the shutdown of the hot water plant would leave the Capital theater without heat, and the further fact that it was the night after the opera, the "Princess Chic" should feel complimented that so many braved the resultant discomforts to attend. Ladies wore their wraps and gentlemen their overcoats and, while a few left before the show was over, the majority remained to the end, with feet like ice cakes.

The adverse conditions were unfortunate for both the company and the theater-going public, for under ordinary conditions, the house would have been crowded. Certainly the performance deserved a full house, for it is not often that we get a comic opera with so many, pretty songs, so many good voices to sing them, so much dramatic ability thrown in. That one song of Miss Jane Vander Zee, "The Lovelight in Your Eyes" was worth a fair percentage of the price of admission.
She has a wonderfully me-... and smooth contralto voice and she sang the song with rare effect. It was really the gem of the evening. And there are several gems but little inferior. There is "The Kiss" and "What Love Is," by the Princess (Miss Sophie Brandt), and that beautiful tower serenade by the quartette, Misses Brandt and Vander Zee and Gus Vaughan and Lyman Wheeler.
And in the lighter vein is the "Foolish Swallow," by Jack Henderson;
"In a Story Book," by Mr. Wheeler and Miss Ruth Halbert; the "How Are We to Know" song, by the male quartette of comedians, Jack Henderson, Tom Smith Martin, Geo.
Callahan and Geo. Thomas. Very effective, too, was Mr. Callahan's song "War is a Bountiful Jade," with anvil chorus, and the opening male chorus was truly excellent.

Mr. Henderson is a funny comedian and is ably assisted by the other three mentioned and by that coquettish, clever little actress, Ruth Halbert. It had to be a good show to hold people who sat in their seats and shivered, but it held them and they enjoyed the show very thoroughly, as the frequent energetic attended.

CHAPTER XVI.

WHEN Armstrong left the room where the wounded boy lay he found Dr. Marsden alone, pacing up and down the long hall, visibly impatient. However, he appeared gratified that the stranger had contented himself with so short an interview.

Armstrong bade the practitioner farewell, and this proved the last he was to see of him. The young man went to the stables to feed and water Bruce, not knowing how soon he might have need of him.

Returning to the house he met Frances Wentworth evidently in search of him. It seemed to him she had been weeping, and there was a perceptible change in the cordiality of her manner toward him. He feared this was perhaps to be accounted for by the admiration of her beauty which his glances might have betrayed, and he resolved to be more careful in future, although it was difficult to repress the exultation he felt at the prospect of being her companion on a long and possibly dangerous expedition.

"Has my brother spoken to you of my visit to Oxford?" she asked.

"Yes."

"Would it be as convenient to you to set out tomorrow morning as this afternoon?"

"Quite. It would be better, in fact, for my horse had a hard day of it yesterday, traveling I don't know how many miles. Perhaps you can tell me where I am. I could get no information from my early callers."

"You are in the southern part of Durham, near the Yorkshire border."

"We have come even farther than I thought. A day's rest will do no harm to the horse."

"I thank you," the girl said somewhat primly as she turned away. Then, pausing and hesitating a moment, she continued, with face half averted, "My brother and I are twins, and perhaps the more devoted to each other on that account. I would do anything for him. I wish to stay and see the nurse installed."

"I thoroughly understand the situation, and I wish I were able to tell you how completely I sympathize with you. Although I know your brother so short a time, I am only too glad to be of the slightest assistance to him."

This gracious avowal did not appear to have the effect it merited. Some trace of a frown marred the smoothness of the girl's brow, and her lips became compressed. If a stranger is to be robbed and thwarted it is embarrassing to hear friendly protestations from him, especially when there is no doubt about their truth."

"I thank you," she murmured again and left him abruptly.

It was very early next morning when Armstrong stood by his black horse in the lane under the trees, waiting for the privilege of her sex in being late. Old John was already mounted on an animal that, besides carrying him, was packed horse for the luggage required by the young lady on her travels. When the girl appeared Armstrong stepped forward to offer his assistance, but he was a fraction of a second too late, for, ignoring him, she was in her saddle and away before he could utter a word. He admired the light ease with which she accomplished this act and saw at once she was a practical horsewoman, on as good terms with her steed as he was with his own. She rode down the lane to the main road, then turned south, never looking again toward the house she was leaving—hurrying, indeed, as if it were her purpose to get out of sight as soon as possible.

After an hour of this Armstrong began to wonder where he was going. Nothing had been said to him regarding the route to be taken, and the girl went on as confidently, never turning her head, as if she and not he were to be the leader of the expedition. He laughed quietly at this. Then, gathering rein, Bruce, requiring no other hint, stepped out and overtook the horse in front.

"Have you any plan marked out with reference to the roads we may take or the towns we are to pass through or avoid?" he asked.

"Yes. We will reach York tonight, then follow the London road as far as Stamford. After that we branch southwest through Northampton to Oxford."

"It is all settled then," he said, smiling.

"I know the way well, and you told me you were a stranger. I have passed between York and London four times," she answered seriously, and with a chilling tone of finality which seemed to indicate that further discussion was unnecessary. The infection may have been too subtle to impress itself upon the young man, for he continued with obvious geniality:

"You have wandered far afield for one so young."

To this remark the girl made no reply. Her eyes were fixed on the road ahead, and Armstrong, being at a loss to continue a one-sided conversation, found nothing further to say. He was vaguely conscious of the constraint that had come between them, for she had talked with him freely enough the day before, but he could not account for the change. He had always been accustomed to the free spoken communion of men and knew little of the vagaries of the other sex, whom he had ever regarded as the more talkative. And so through Yorkshire the silent progress continued.

"This is not unlike some parts of Scotland," he said at last, in an ill-fated attempt to revive a conversation which he did not recognize as dead and beyond his power to reanimate. The girl reined in her horse, and Bruce stopped through sympathy, old John halting, that the respectful distance he kept might not be decreased. Frances held her head high, and there was a sparkle of determination in her eye. It was best to begin right, and she would put this persistent man in his place, a task already too long delayed. And perhaps the putting of him in his place would lessen the clamor of her own conscience.

"Sir, who are you?" was her amazing inquiry.

"Me!" gasped Armstrong. "I'm a Scotsman."

"Perhaps I should have said, what are you?"

"You mean— Oh, I'm a drover—a dealer in cattle."

"Did my brother tell you who I am?"

"He told me his father was the late Earl of Strathford."

"Yesterday I was grateful to you for the aid you afforded my brother, as I should have been grateful to my servant if he had occupied your place, but I should not have forgotten the distance between that servant and myself. Strathford's daughter does not recognize a drover as her social equal. I ask you to take the position I set for you when I began this journey."

"Do you mean, madam, that I am to ride with your servant?"

"That is what I mean."

"I have no objection in the least. From the conversations we had together he shows himself a man of knowledge and a lover of horses, which is an easy passport to my liking."

"I am glad his company is so much to your taste, and I shall be obliged to you if you fall back with him, as I wish to ride alone."

"That will I not do under command, for, although I may cherish old John's conversation, I cannot admit the claim of superiority you set up. I am a drover, I said, and so your ancient King Alfred might with equal truth have dubbed himself a baker, if old tales are true. I am William Armstrong of Gilnockie Towers, lord of the lands of Langholm, Dalbeth, Staple-Gortown, Shield and Dalblane. I can trace my lineage as far back as any noble in England and come to my ancestral thieves as soon as they. In courtesy we Armstrongs are the equals of any Englishman, and in battle we have never turned our backs on them. The castles of my clan line the river Liddel, and when I ride with my friend, the Earl of Traquair, I ride by his side and not with his followers."

"Sir, you overwhelm me with your grandeur," said the girl loftily, rejoiced to find herself in what promised to be a quarrel. She was human, and thought it would prove easier to rob an enemy than a friend. "I thought the crowns of England and Scotland were united, but I see I was mistaken. I travel with the king of Scotland, and he is doubtless on his way to Oxford to confer with his brother, the king of England."

"Madam, I go to greet his majesty Charles, and if he dare to address me as you have done I will tell him I am more king of the border than he is king of England, and my saying will be true."

Frances Wentworth bowed low in mock humility.

"Your highness of the border, will you permit me to ride in your train? I know I am not worthy, but I ask the boon that I may seek consolation in communion with my servant."

"Madam, you may ride where you please," gruffly replied the thoroughly angered Scot, tingling with wounded pride.

"Sir, I thank you," replied the maiden, bowing again, "and I am delighted that you should exhibit to one so lowly as I an example of that courtesy of which you just now boasted."

To this the indignant man made no reply, thus changing his former relations as regarded conversation. He urged on his horse, and she, after pausing awhile and seeing that John would approach no nearer, also went on, and thus the three kept for the day their new relative positions. Unheeded, the sun passed the meridian, and at last she was roused to a sense of her surroundings by the stopping of her unguided horse before a roadside inn. Armstrong, his black steed brought to a standstill across the highway, sat rigidly upright, and he said when she thus unexpectedly looked at him with something of startled alarm in her eyes:

"We stop here for rest and refreshment."

"I need neither rest nor refreshment," she answered wearily.

TAINTED BLOOD

Columbus, Ohio, May 19, 1903.
Some four years ago I was suffering from impure blood and a general run-down condition of the system. I had no appetite, was losing flesh, and had all-gone tired feeling that made me miserable. I began the use of S. S. S., and after taking seven or eight bottles my skin was cleared of all eruptions and took on a ruddy, healthy glow that assured me that my blood had been restored to its normal, healthy condition. My appetite was restored, as I could eat anything put before me, and as I regained my appetite I increased in weight, and that "tired feeling" which worried me so much disappeared, and I was once again my old self. I heartily recommend S. S. S. as the best blood purifier and tonic made, and strongly advise its use to all those in need of such medicine. VICTOR STRATTON, Cor. Barthman and Washington Aves.

Wheeling, W. Va., May 28, 1903.
My system was run down and my joints ached and pained me considerably. I had used S. S. S. before and knew what it was, so I purchased a bottle of it and have taken several bottles and the aches and pains are gone, my blood has been cleared and my general health built up. I can testify to it as a blood purifier and tonic. 1533 Market St. JOHN C. SPAIN.

Your Life Current.
The power that gives you life and motion is the nerve force, or nerve fluid, located in the nerve cells of the brain, and sent out through the nerves to the various organs.
If you are tired, nervous, irritable, cannot sleep; have headache, feel stuffy, dull and melancholy, or have neuralgia, rheumatism, backache, periodical pains, indigestion, dyspepsia, stomach trouble, or the kidneys and liver are inactive, your life-current is weak.
Power-producing fuel is needed; something to increase nerve energy—strengthen the nerves.
Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is the fuel you need. It feeds the nerves, produces nerve force, and restores vitality.
"When I began taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and Anti-Pain Pills I was confined to my bed. I had severe nervous spells, the result of two years illness with malaria. I gradually grew so weak that I was unable to sit up. The spells would commence with cold chills, and I would become weak and almost helpless. My circulation was poor. I had doctored right along but grew weaker and sicker. The Nervine seemed to strengthen me right away and my circulation was better. I have taken all seven bottles of the Nervine, and I am entirely well."

THE COMMITTEE HAS BEEN CHOSEN

Will Arrange a K. I. T. Season Schedule.

Bohannon Deal Between Paducah and Henderson Off—Henderson Signing New Players.

VINCENNES ELECTS OFFICERS

President Charles Brown, of the K. I. T., has appointed on the committee to prepare a schedule to submit to the K. I. T. league cities, Messrs. A. S. Thompson, Paducah; Jacob Zimbro, Henderson, and W. C. Greany, of Cairo. The smaller towns in the league, it is understood, are opposed to a long season, and want the windup about September 6, while the larger cities do not, and at least one or two of them are willing to play until October 1. It is not known what sort of a compromise will be reached.

The deal between Lloyd, of Paducah, and Zimbro, of Henderson, to trade Land for Bohannon is off, but "Red" Bohannon is not yet but is trying hard enough to get off. He does not want to play with Henderson and has taken his case to the national board to try to secure his release. It seems Red is not popular in Henderson. Zimbro was offered Freeman for Bohannon but this deal is also off.

The Henderson uniform will this season be a bluish grey and the team will not be provided with a traveling uniform. The Paducah club will, however. The Indians will have a white uniform to wear in Paducah and a blue one for the circuit, as last season.

The Henderson management is signing new players and says it will have about as fast a team as possible to secure. Charles French, Indianapolis, has been signed. He is a fielder and said to be a good hitter. His age is 19 years. Charles Kelley, of Louisville, will also be given a trial by Henderson in the outfield. Charles Saddle, of Osgood, Ind., a pitcher of 6 feet 6 inches in height and 200 pounds in weight, has been signed. Newt Horn, of Nashville, a catcher, has also been signed by Henderson for a trial.

Peck Walters, formerly of Henderson, two years ago, has been signed by Princeton, Ind. He is light but a good catcher, and hails from Tennessee.

The baseball fans in Vincennes, Ind., are getting down to business and have already elected directors and officers: The directors are C. C. Gosnell, P. D. Green, Wm. Ewing, Wm. Miller, John Tuite and J. C. Cox. The officers are C. C. Gosnell, president; P. D. Green, secretary.

The directors will hold another meeting today to outline plans for the season. Manager Eddie Kolb, who is now in Florida, had sent a communication which was read before the meeting Wednesday night. He says he is getting some of the fastest ball players in the country and is especially looking after the hitting ability of his men, securing the best "stickers" possible.

Itch—Ringworm.

E. T. Lucas, Wingo, Ky., writes, April 25th, 1902: "For 10 to 12 years I had been afflicted with a malady known as the 'itch.' The itching was most unbearable; I had tried for years to find relief, having tried all remedies I could hear of, besides a number of doctors. I wish to state that one single application of Ballard's Snow Lintiment cured me completely and permanently. Since then I have used the lintiment on two separate occasions for ring worm and it cured completely. 25c. 50c. and $1.00 bottle. DuBois, Kolb & Co., Paducah, Ky.

CAN START OVER.

Ryan, the Get-Rich-Quick Man, Free of All Charges.

St. Louis, Feb. 10.—Sustaining the demurrer of the defense, Judge Foster entered a verdict of acquittal in the case of John J. Ryan, charged with embezzlement, grand larceny and obtaining money under false pretenses in an alleged "get-rich-quick" investment concern. Circuit Attorney Sager immediately entered a nolle prosequi in the other indictments against Ryan thus wiping out all the charges against him.

NEWS OF THE RIVERS.

The Kentucky arrived this morning out of Tennessee river and will return tomorrow afternoon late.

Capt. Ben Cox, the veteran pilot, who has been ill at his home above Port Fulton for some time, was born in Jeffersonville, and went on the river in the early 30s as a cook on flatboats, and was for many years one of the best towboat pilots in the Louisville and New Orleans trade.

The river is lower at Pittsburgh than it has been for many years.

There are many boats aground in the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers above Pittsburgh, and both rivers are falling.

The gauge at Paducah shows a rise of over two feet and the rivers are booming with prospects for a continuous rise, the result of the heavy general rains in Tennessee.

The gauge this morning showed 9.5, a rise of 2.8 in the last 24 hours. Weather is clear and cold, temperature 32, with northwest winds.

The Pavnika, Duffey and Margaret will all come out of Tennessee river this morning.

The Wash Honshell came out of Tennessee river yesterday and is at Cairo delivering a tow of empties. The harbor here shows no ice and the Dick Fowler will probably start out again Monday if the conditions are unchanged from today.

Croup
Begins with the symptoms of a common cold; there is chilliness, sneezing, sore throat, hot skin, quick pulse, hoarseness and impeded respiration. Give frequent small doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup (the child will cry for it) and at the first sign of a croupy cough, apply frequently Ballard's Snow Lintiment to the throat.

Mrs. A. Vliet, New Castle, Colo., writes, March 19th, 1901: "I think Ballard's Horehound Syrup a wonderful remedy, and so pleasant." 25c., 50c. and $1.00. DuBois, Kolb & Co., Paducah, Ky.

Inauguration Rates.

On account of the Presidential Inauguration ceremonies at Washington, D. C., March 4th, 1905, the Illinois Central railroad company will sell excursion tickets to Washington, D. C., and return, on March 1, 2, and 3 for $21.50 from Paducah, good for continuous passage only in each direction, and until March 8th, to return with the privilege of extension until March 18th, by personally depositing ticket with Joint Agent at Washington, D. C., not later than March 8th, and upon payment of $1 additional.

Use Shoffner's Sure Cure

The Great Tonic and Blood Purifier—Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia and Catarrh.

It is a trite and true saying that "blood is the life." Now where does the blood come from? Everybody knows, or should know, that it comes from the nutritive elements extracted by the stomach from the food we eat. If the digestive organs do not perform their functions by reason of disease germs, there is no nutrition extracted, and the food might better be thrown in the dump to decay and breed germs in the open air than to remain in the stomach and become a rotten, putrid mass, as it naturally does if there is no digestion. No disease germ can live and find lodgment in a human body that uses the Shoffner's Sure Cure. Price $1.00.

STILL GROWING

The First Woman Member Is Dr.
Olivia Nelson—The Club's Work.

The Commercial club is going after members in earnest and since yesterday many new names have been secured on the membership list.

Among them are the names of Dr. Olivia Nelson, the first woman member of the association; Hal Flournoy, O. L. Gregory, Rob Noble, J. S. Troutman, E. E. Bell, Powell-Rogers Co., Paducah Cigar Co., Henry Greif and Standard Tie Co.

The club is after several institutions and factories and hopes to secure them. This afternoon at 4:30 o'clock the special committee appointed to attempt to secure a reorganization of the Forked Deer Pants Co., will report. This is one thing the club will look after, the reorganization of firms and corporations which have gone under.

There is more interest in the matters of the club at present than ever before and the conditions are generally better. It is not known whether the club will incorporate or not, this being left for future decision, but some members want to incorporate and go in right.

Nothing Further Learned About the Mayfield Case.

The Mayfield murder mystery still remains a mystery notwithstanding the strenuous efforts of Marshal Charles McNutt, of Mayfield, who is trying to work up the case.

It will be remembered a man was found in a hay stack with his throat cut from ear to ear. His razor lay by his side but every means of identification had been removed. The theory of murder was advanced but most people thought it a clear case
